KIDDIE KLUB FETE WILL SHOW 1,500 IN NEW YORK PAGEANT

Date is May 26 on Central Park Playground Lawn—
Everybody Invited.

The full programme for the Kiddie Klub pageant, "Young Manhattan," to be held May 26 on the Central Park Playground lawn, West Drive and Sixty-fourth Street, has been arranged. The pageant is to take the form of a dramatic and pictorial presentation of the history of New York City as interpreted for young folks. The first work for the pageant was undertaken by the Washington Irving Group of Kiddie Klub members. After they had been rehearsing a little while Cousin Eleanor invited Mr. William Lee, Supervisor of the Recreation Bureau of the Park Department, to see the work. He was so pleased that he stepped right in and helped, with the approval of Commissioner Cabot Ward. The Recreation Bureau's big staff of eighty instructors has been at work and there are 1,500 children drilling daily.

"Young Manhattan" Pageant of the Kiddie Klub Will Show New York's History Up to Present Day

The pageant will begin with a representation of the life of the redskins before the white men came. Then the Indians discover the Dutch immigrants and courteously welcome them. There are Dutch and Indian dances to celebrate the meeting. Peter Minuet with his counselors enters and buys the island of Manhattan for a pitiful handful of beads and glass jewelry. The transfer of the city from Dutch to British sovereignty is shown. There are characteristic English dances scattered through this part of the programme.

Then George Washington, escorted by Boy Scouts, establishes Liberty on the pedestal of American government. The melting pot is symbolized by dances of the many nations whose sons and daughters make up modern New York, and at the end all the participants in the pageant rise and chant the "pledge of Allegiance to the Flag" and then all, including the audience, sing "The Star Spangled Banner."

Here and now Cousin Eleanor invites all Kiddie Klub members with their families and their friends to come and enjoy the pageant. She is sure they will have a mighty good time, and no matter how good Americans they are they will go away with a new love for their country and its traditions in their hearts.

Threw Acid in His Eyes.
Carl Knapp, twenty years old, of No. 45 Houston Street, was walking along that street early to-day when a man whose identity has not been established threw muriatic acid into his face. Knapp is in the City Hospital and may lose the sight of both eyes. The reason for the act is not known and Knapp claims to know of none.

Chemist Burned in Explosion.
Walter Gotham, twenty-four, a chemist of Hoboken, N. J., was badly burned about the hands and face to-day in an explosion which occurred while he was experimenting in the laboratory of the Carbide Chemical Company at No. 104 West Avenue, Williamsburg. The explosion caused a blast which did about $500 damage.

WRINKLES ALL DRIVEN AWAY

"The bottle of Ull has completely cleared my face of the horrible wrinkles that were such an eyesore to my daughters, my grandchildren and to me. It is a Godsend to wrinkled, suffering humanity." When Ull is regularly applied for a reasonable time wrinkles disappear, the skin regains its former smoothness, plumpness and color. Ull is such a splendid skin treatment that every woman, old and young, ought to have a bottle on her dressing table always. Rough, faded complexions get back their natural freshness from its use, and it is also a fine treatment for freckles, blackheads and many forms of eczema. All first class drug stores and department stores can supply Ull. It is not a cream or paste, but a pure nut-oil liquid, and it is only necessary to use it at night before retiring. Adv.

WANTS THE MOVIES TO REEL OFF A BIG SLICE OF WAR TAX

"Legitimate" Cites Fabulous
Film Salaries—Protest
by Newspapers.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—The Senate Finance Committee reopened hearings on the Revenue bill to-day. Representatives of the movie, cabaret and legitimate theatricals were present in force.

Senator Thomas scored the large hotels for charging $5 for theatre tickets, ordinarily sold for $2. Scalpers were mercilessly assailed.

Lignon Johnson, who represented the "legitimate," said: "We who have visited cabarets find out they are not giving their entertainments for nothing. We all know that a common ordinary 25-cent drink in a cabaret costs about 50 to 60 cents, and they make the public pay in various other ways for the show."

Addressing the movies, he said: "Any industry that can afford to pay to a slapstick comedian as much as the combined salaries of the United States Senate and to a girl scarcely out of her teens more than is paid President, his Cabinet and the Supreme Court altogether, might well be called upon for copious contributions in this taxation."

The "movies" broke in with a protest that the proposed tax would wipe them out of business. Senator McCumber asked: "Don't you think that if you can get together and frame up an agreement not to pay $100,000 a year to a face contortion artist not worth $5,000, you might better be able to meet the tax proposed on your industry?"

Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey's Circus each assured a willingness to pay their share of the taxes. Newspaper publishers protesting against the proposed to increase carriage rates on daily newspapers had a large delegation on hand to tell the committee that such rates would tax many newspapers out of business.

D. H. Jones, representing the American Cable Company, urged the elimination of the 5 per cent tax on chewing gum sales, as the tax cannot be passed on to the consumer. "We are willing to bear a 10 per cent ad valorem," he said.

Support from both sides of the chamber continued to show the disposition of the House to stand in as drawn by the Ways and Means Committee and to defend attacks upon it on the ground that the Government must have the revenue. Declaring that paper manufacture is "trust controlled," Senator Robinson of Arkansas, to-day introduced a bill in the Senate to declare paper a "public utility" and empower the Federal Trade Commission to fix reasonable prices on the product.

NATION-WIDE HUNT BEGUN IN $85,000 JEWEL ROBBERY

Mrs. Allen Searches Rogues'
Gallery in Vain for Picture of Suspected Butler.

Detectives of the entire country are hunting to-day for a man who gave the name of Alfred Wound when he was engaged as a butler by Mrs. Frederick H. Allen of Pelham Manor on May 5, and who disappeared five days later just before his employer discovered she had been robbed of jewelry, mostly pearls, valued at about $85,000.

Mrs. Allen at first believed her loss would exceed $200,000, but to-day she dropped her estimate to the smaller figure. Several pieces of jewelry she believed to have been stolen have been found.

Mr. and Mrs. Allen and their servants spent some time at Police Headquarters to-day trying to identify Wound's picture in the Rogues' gallery. His picture is not on file there.

Allen told the detectives that Wound had been highly recommended by a Fifth Avenue employment agency. He arrived at Pelham Manor, the Allen country home, a week ago last Saturday, claiming to be a Belgian, but speaking little French. Mr. Allen said to-day he believed Wound, who is fifty years old and stockily built, is a German. His former employer said he seemed to know very little about the task for which he had been engaged.

Last Thursday Wound was alone in the house with the exception of another servant, Mr. and Mrs. Allen and other servants having come to the city to see the French Mission. Mr. Allen was a member of the Mayor's Committee.

The family did not return to Pelham Manor until Friday, at which time Mrs. Allen discovered her dresser had been opened and the jewelry removed. Several stickpins belonging to Mr. Allen also were missing. Wound had left the house. The key to the dresser, and a bottle of hair dye which the butler had used, was found on the lawn. A hurried investigation disclosed that Wound had been seen in a saloon in New Rochelle at 7:30 Thursday night. No trace of him has since been found. Two years ago the Allen home was entered by burglars, who were caught after a running fight with the police and sent to prison for ten years.

HOLLAND RUSK

Every day that you delay your first taste of Holland Rusk, you are missing one of life's good things. In Holland it is a national dainty, in America it is fast getting to be. Your first impression will last—you never tasted anything quite like it, a delicious, golden-brown, crisp, tasty toast that is made only of the very finest flour, eggs and rich, sweet milk. Made for over twenty years by Dutch bakers in Holland, Mich., and now produced at last, in sufficient quantities to supply a growing national demand. A most delightful dish for any meal—or between meals. Served with butter, sugar, syrup, fruit syrups or sliced fruits.
